Iron Works Asks Government to Ac-

—Schmitz Refuses Police Protection to Street Cars—Will Preserve Order

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The day passed quietly and there was practically no change in either the carmen's, ironworker's or telephone girls' strike. It is pretty generally understood the first attempt to run cars will be made tomorrow morning. The company, it is said, has about 500 strikebreakers ready to take out cars.

Mayor Schmitz has issued a statement that he will not place policemen on cars and the police will be used only to preserve and maintain order.

The Civic League, which has been indefatigable in its efforts to bring President Calhoun of the company and President Cornelius of the carmen together, was very busy until nearly midnight. It met with no encouragement.

President Calhoun, of the United Railroads, tonight issued a statement in which he said he hoped all employees of the company would report for work tomorrow morning but that all who do not return will be formally dismissed. Calhoun says the matters in the controversy involve no union principle whatever but is a mere question of business adjustment based on what is fair and equitable. He says the company will avoid strife and the rapidity with which full service is resumed will depend on the degree of protection afforded by the city and state.

Calhoun quotes a telegram from President Thalmann of the United Railways Investment Company in New York (the holding company), expressing amazement at the strike after the concessions granted the men. He concurs in the stand of the company and says he is absolutely opposed to further concessions.

The telephone service is much improved today. The linemen have served notice on President Scott that unless the telephone operators' union is recognized, the linemen will go out in sympathy. A meeting between Scott and the union has been arranged for tomorrow. As a result of the iron workers' strike the Union Iron Works has telegraphed to the Navy Department requesting the government to accept the delivery of the cruiser California in its present unfinished condition. Secretary Metcalf has wired a compliance with the request and the cruiser will be finished at the Mare Island Navy Yards.

KING OF SIAM.

SAN ROMO, Italy, May 6.—The King of Siam who is visiting here is attracting attention by his democratic manners. During an automobile ride the other day he stopped at a wayside inn where some socialist workmen were gathered. He invited the men to take wine with him and seemed interested in their talk.

THE ALHAMBRA.

Slowly Falling to Pieces—Meeting is Called to Restore Building.

PARIS, May 6.—The condition of the famous Alhambra at Granada is discussed in a local journal, which also publishes photographs showing the pressing necessity of repairs. According to the papers the marvelous ceiling of the hall of the Comoreras threatens to fall in any moment. The northern wall of the tower is likely to cause a complete collapse. The Machuca gallery and the patio of the harem are in immediate danger of becoming total ruins. The Defender De Granada, the paper referred to, announces the call for a public meeting to take action in the matter and says that a petition will be drawn up and sent to Madrid.

NOT SO BAD.

Secretary Wilson Says Reports Have Been Exaggerated.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The reports of the damage to the crops that have been so numerous of late owing to unseasonable weather and ravages of bugs, have been greatly exaggerated, according to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who is in Chicago today.

He said in Minnesota and Dakota, seeding had been delayed two weeks but there is plenty of time between now and September to grow a normal crop of spring wheat. In the Canadian Northwest, Wilson said reports are more serious, but he says that shortage there does not cut much of a figure. In the Southwest, where the most reports of green bugs have been circulated he has found in every instance that the past was local and there has been no general attack by bugs as some persons would like to have appear and it will be found that a normal crop will be harvested.

A DIPLOMATIC ROW

Report That Mexico and Guatemala Severed Relations.

TROUBLE DOES NOT MEAN WAR

American Minister in Guatemala To Look After Mexico's Interests There
—Report Denied at Washington—
Brigands May Invade Territory.

MEXICO CITY, May 6.—Diplomatic relations between Mexico and Guatemala have not been severed. Tonight the sub-secretary of foreign affairs denied the report from Washington to the effect that Minister Gamboa has been recalled.

Although the actual news of the severance of the diplomatic relations of Guatemala and Mexico has not reached here, officials in Washington have no doubt that Mexico will take action which will result in the giving of the Guatemalan Minister to Mexico his passports. The American in charge, Philip Brown, in Guatemala, has been instructed to look after Mexico's interests in the Guatemalan capital. The diplomatic rupture does not mean war although the fact that the countries adjoin causes some anxiety. There may be at any time invasions by irresponsible bands and doubtless trouble would result that might easily end in a declaration of hostilities.

TO DECIDE WEDNESDAY

HAYWOOD APPEARED IN COURT

Prisoner Guarded By Two Deputies
Listened To Arguments Of Attorneys
—Defense Claim They Are Entitled
To a More Specific Showing.

BOISE, May 6.—Judge Wood will Wednesday decide if on the eve of his trial William Haywood is entitled to receive at the hands of the state a bill of particulars specifying the overt acts charged against him. The motion of the defense for this disclosure was argued today and at the time stated the court announced that he would make a decision at the time stated. The prisoner, under a guard of Sheriff Hodgins and two deputies was brought into court for argument and of his counsel both Frank Richardson and Clarence S. Darrow pleaded in his behalf. Senator Borah alone spoke in behalf of the state. The argument, always earnest, was characterized at times by great feeling and dramatic intensity. Richardson, who opened the argument contended that the indictment was lacking in particularity; that it left the defendants in the dark as to the nature of the case to be presented against them and the defendants were entitled to a more specific showing of the case. He submitted an extended brief citing a great number of authorities and precedents in favor of his contention. Borah in reply declared the defense was seeking a disclosure of the proof in the hands of the state rather than more perfect pleadings and asserted the reports contained no single authority that would support their contention.

Darrow, who closed the argument, began by saying it was the purpose of the defense to secure a disclosure of the evidence in the hands of the prosecution. He made a spirit attack on the attitude of the prosecution regarding its witnesses and evidence, describing it as mysterious, unfair and unjust. He asserted the only question involved was one of fairness and justice to the accused, he laid stress upon the difficulty of securing testimony from distant points and the danger to defense of "surprise" testimony and impassioned asserted the rights of the prisoners were as much in the hands of the prosecution as in the keeping of the defense.

In answer to Judge Wood, Darrow said the defense was not ready to go to trial, but Richardson interrupted him to make a qualification that it was as ready as could be in circumstances where the case of the state was withheld from it. He said in all other respects, the defense was ready. Richardson responding in brief to the argument of Borah said the counsel for the state made no distinction between overt acts which the state would seek to show against the prisoners and the evidence by which it would show the commission of the alleged overt acts. The defense wished to know what overt acts were.

Borah closed the discussion with a spirited speech in which he defended the secrecy in securing witnesses, instances loss of two in Colorado yesterday, and disavowed a desire for any man's blood unjustly and ayowed the purpose of the state to do its duty.

ELLEN TERRY WEDS.

Marries Leading Man in Pittsburg En Route To England.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Announcement was made today that Ellen Terry, the English actress, is again a bride. She was married to James Carew, her leading man in Pittsburg on March 22. Mr. Carew made the announcement. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace. For reasons that have not been disclosed the announcement of the marriage was deferred until the famous actress was on the sea bound for her native land. She sailed on Saturday and Mr. Carew, who was obliged to remain in America to look up urgent business, decided with her consent, of course, to make the fact known forthwith. In years Mr. Carew is much the junior of his bride. He is 39 years old, while she is 59. She has already been married twice. Nevertheless it is understood by all their friends that it was purely a love match, the beginning of which was soon after their first meeting. Mr. Carew, who is a native of Indiana, is well known on the stage.

Report That Three Towns Destroyed
Either By Fire Or Storm—Several
Villages Wiped Out—All Wires Are Down; Details Meager.

FOR WORTH, May 6.—The storm of wind and rain which was general throughout a considerable area in Northern Texas and which at some places assumed the proportions of a tornado, according to meagre reports received here tonight, has resulted in at least the loss of three lives and great damage to property and crops. Several villages were wiped out, but because of prostration of both telegraph and telephone lines details are almost impossible to get. It is reported Hillsboro, Sulphur Springs and Antioch were either damaged or destroyed.

QUEEN IS IN GOOD HEALTH

Semi-Official Announcement Promises
The Royal Heir At The End of May
—Much Surprise and Comment On Discrepancy of Statements.

MADRID, May 6.—It was semi-officially announced today that the confinement of Queen Victoria may be expected at the end of May. This announcement was subsequently contradicted by Dr. Gutierrez, the specialist, who is in constant attendance at the palace, who declared the royal baby should have arrived before this. There was much surprised comment at the discrepancy in these statements and a careful inquiry was made with the result that the official announcement issued at the beginning of the year, placing the event at the latter part of May turns out to be correct. The incident has caused both indignation and amusement and has revealed that the court physicians who issued a report April 2, saying the child would probably be born the latter part of April were in error. They instance the fact that no fewer than 20 bishops have arrived at Madrid within the last 10 days in order to be in readiness for the birth of the heir to the throne. The Queen drove out this morning as usual but she complained of a chill this afternoon and remained in the palace the rest of the day.

NEW SCHEDULE.

Steamer F. A. Kilburn Will Make Her
Run in Ten Days.

PORTLAND, May 6.—Beginning with her next sailing, which will probably be tomorrow night, the steamer F. A. Kilburn will give a 10-day service between Portland and San Francisco, stopping at Eureka and Coos Bay on both the up and down trips. Heretofore she has been taking 14 days to complete the round-trip voyage.

The steamer will arrive from the South this evening. In order to gain four days over her present schedule she will be kept in port no longer than is absolutely necessary for loading and discharging. Most of her freight on the down trip is consigned through to San Francisco, consequently she will not be delayed for any great while at either Coos Bay or Eureka. On the return voyage, the major portion of her shipments come through to Portland. On the trip practically all of her freight is consigned to local merchants. At way ports she stopped only long enough to pick up passengers.

HOUSE OF LORDS

Considering Bill for Their Own Reconstruction.

NEWTON BILL TURNED DOWN

Government Declined To Recognize
Bill and Is Contemplating Some
Drastic Measures—It Provided For a Different Method of Electing Peers.

LONDON, May 6.—The discussion in the House of Lords today was devoted to Lord Newton's bill proposing a reconstruction of the House of Lords partly on an elective basis. He seeks to remove the excessive preponderance of hereditary peers by stipulating qualifications through service to state or previous election. He provides for a certain number of elective peers and for a nomination by the crown of life peers, these not to exceed 100 in number. The house and galleries were thronged, showing the interest aroused by the conservative proposal to anticipate government action, and the possibility of the debate provoking a statement of the intentions of the government.

This however, did not come to pass, the Earl of Crews, Lord President of the Council, speaking on behalf of the government, declining to have anything to say anything to do with Lord Newton's proposal. He gave no hint of the government's plans, although his cryptic utterances conveyed the idea that the government contemplated somewhat drastic measure.
